

Report 22

I found a wild hamster?

It was the afternoon
of winter. At night,
I looked outside at the garden and saw a hamster I was shocked!

But what was it thinking,
I wonder? It was sitting there for a long time. Maybe it was hibernating.

It was there for about an hour until it suddenly moved. Where could it have come from?
I hope it will come back in the spring.

But when I looked at the hamster, it

It was a real surprise.
